Commentary and Guidance for Enlightened Change
During Rapidly Changing Times

These essays are presented for their value to anyone who cares about the future as humanity prepares to make the greatest shift in consciousness and existence ever. We cover a wide range of topics including social-values research, “future-views”, the world situation, and advanced spiritual perspectives.

"Global awakening means individuals becoming aware of and embracing their true nature and destiny as embodied spiritual Beings. This truth goes beyond the limitations of historical beliefs concerning self, time, space, and matter. This realization concerns remembering who and what we are beyond the ordinary considerations of self as well as activating new dimensions of Being never before realized. The vastness of this destiny is such that it can only be known as it creates itself."

Problems of “Exopolitics” ET’s and Aliens

by Alex Kochkin

Preface

This is a topic we have deliberately avoided discussing so far. However, It would be foolish and presumptuous to imagine that extra-terrestrials” (ET’s) or other-worldly, other-dimensional aliens are completely separate or “other” from our greater selves. Considering our human self is a projection or extension from our greater soul self, there are aspects of our greater selves or souls that have tangible existences in other dimensions, other worlds, other universes, and other creations. Some “ET’s” are connected to us here, some as aspects of the same souls. Some “ET’s” are really from “way out there” and do not have a direct connection to us as humans or us as larger beings, except that they are here to observe or to help during this most major transformational process.

It would also be simplistic to presume that “ET’s” are either benevolent or malevolent. Some are dealing with their own problems and seek to learn firsthand how the changes are occurring here. Like humans, there are many “races” with various agendas, some aligned with the Light, some aligned with the Dark, and some already involved with the earthly human powers-that-be.

In this article the ET’s we refer to are not those who have been secretly dealing with the secret officials around the world –but are those who are spiritually advanced in their evolution. This article has been prompted by a recent spate of correspondents reporting remote viewing or dreamtime experiences that bear upon this material. It should also be noted that HPH predictive linguistics project has detected major human-ET concerns as something developing during 2010 and more in 2011.

Introductory Remarks

One of the major USA-based commercial television networks has broadcast a remake of an early 1980’s science fiction series “V”, in which an ET fleet shows up and informs humans that they are benevolent and that they are here to help. The plot revolves around the discovery of and conflicts over their true agenda, one that is far from benevolent to humans. Another new movie deals with the alien abduction topic.

Channelers and ET/UFO circles have been creating a campaign of their own spin that excites followers about an alleged public announcement by the USA government concerning ET/alien contact. Typically, the context and language is less than encouraging, leading me to wonder what the real agenda is. One very popular channeler typifies this “un-disclosed” agenda concerning “disclosure”. They literally invoke the consciousness of Earth, God, and claim they are here to help clean-up and restore the Earth. They also leave this up the officialdom and mis-lead the gullible reader by saying “this is your world” and that “your representatives are responsible for making (disclosure/contact) decisions”. I guess these channeled entities never “got the memo” as to the imprisonment of the human consciousness here by a system that never “represented” humanity, ever.

It should be noted here that various “secret government” and other groups, sanctioned by the powers-that-be (TPTB), have considered various methods for gaining the greatest level of cooperation among humanity under their aegis and control. These have included the use of global warming, the “threat” of terrorism, pandemics, and the threat of an alien invasion. The aim: to promote a false oneness or unity against an overwhelming threat.

This last item would include some combination of space and land-based holographic projection, psychotronics to heighten the effects, and physical ships from human-run bases on earth, augmented by real ET craft, compliments of those who have “doing business” with the powers that be. The turmoil from this would be like a global “9-11 event” following which, extreme social control measures would be applied in the “interests of public safety”.

It is also noteworthy that the linguistics-based forecasting project called “HalfPastHuman” (HPH) detected something they have called “alien wars” emerging from 2010 into 2011 as well as many instances of “ET contact” memes. It is my sense that there will be a fear response by some to the visible presence of ET’s who have arrived to render aid. This could be one source of this. The other may well be a “false flag” invasion intended to “lock down” most of humanity under the pretext of a greater threat than any the powers-that-be have concocted to date. The technology exists to create this, but it would be a very risky gamut, much riskier to implement than their 9-11 events.

As those who keep watch on these topics know that there has been a remarkable increase in “various sightings” in the recent year or so. Most are advanced human-origin technology and some are hoaxes to test the gullible –all alleged as evidence for genuine sightings.

At another level, there is the telepathic, clairvoyant, and higher dimensional “contacts”. Of these that are most widely reported, the majority are either human “dark ops” mind control experiments or channeling of dark-side ET’s who most likely are not very benevolent. So many of those who claim ET-contact make such unbelievably ludicrous claims and exhibit an amazing ignorance of the state of affairs in general.

Most of the humans who like to present themselves as qualified and knowledgeable about human-alien contact politics, have shadowy backgrounds and generally lack credibility even as they promote themselves and those they have allied with to shore up their “credibility gap”. Regrettably, there are too many “new-agers” and gullible “want-to-believe-ers” who will circulate nearly anything without any discernment. Channelers continue to publish endless nonsense and disinformation from alleged leaders of various ET alliances. This of course only leads to greater confusion, suspicion, and disbelief. What does concern me about this rubbish is that buried amongst these messages is an acknowledgement of enough true information to sucker people into believing all of it. Some of these sources promote some ET-facilitated economic miracle and suddenly everyone is materially well off! No work, no dark memes to deal with. Everyone happy. (I am not exaggerating this.)

The years pre- and post-2000 were a difficult time to conduct any type of in-depth assessment of the situation and potential of humanity. There were various dark forces in 3d and higher dimensions, there were various good guy and bad guy “ET aliens” on earth doing their thing, and of course there were human activities moving ever more into chaos. So many agendas and influences.

Presently there are various rumors of some sort of official “disclosure” that might be made in the coming months or year that includes knowledge of ET’s and aliens by various levels of “officialdom” in various countries. There have been over the past decade, various individuals who have specifically promoted themselves as advocates of such disclosure. However very few have much credibility under any light and some have made bedfellows of individuals whose actions have been not been of benevolent toward human spiritual evolution. So amidst such confusion, it is easy to ignore or dismiss reports of contact, regardless of the source.

Against this background of self-promotion, dark force influences, secret government activities, and plain utter nonsense, there is a quiet matter of benevolent aid that is patiently waiting and preparing for the eventuality of open contact.

The question of course is how such contact is to be made public and under what circumstances. This will be discussed further in this article.

The “Showing Up” Message of 2003 – An example

In 2003, a message was widely circulated on the Internet titled “Decide Whether We Should Show Up!” and presented as a “referendum for humanity”. It was an adequately written piece designed to evoke a “yes” response. Of course there was no way to prove the true agenda or the true source of this message. It really did not matter at all, as it was the content and the questions and responses that it evoked.

It was (and still is) my sense that the authorship of the 2003 advocacy piece was not spiritually enlightened. At the time and to this day, I do not believe the message originated from a truly benevolent race that was truly in service to The Creator of All and the Light. There were clues to this effect in the message itself and then there was the problem of getting a clear intuitive reading on its actual source. So I simply dealt with the proposition as it was published.

That said, the message and the unqualified “yes” responses it evoked got my attention to write a considered response. There was no way I could prove or argue whether the source of the message had a “good” or “bad” agenda. However, it is plain that the message failed to address the problem of the dark force influence upon humans on earth and it asked for “carte blanche” permission from those reading it. Asking for permission in this way became another source of caution. And of course there was the reference to their “white powder” that was so incongruous. From various clues, there was something hidden beneath its positive sounding veneer.

I already had a sense of the outcome of the larger assessment of the situation of humanity and so at the time I gave a highly qualified “yes” response for a very limited form of contact, and not any public display.

Here is the gist of my comments from 2003:

First we will hypothetically assume that the message was of the best of intentions. Humanity has the potential to achieve a breakthrough in awakening to true self and Creator. How this could come about is not germane to this discussion. My concern at the time was that the public attention on the ET’s would interfere with the spiritual awakening of humanity. Without access to true free-will, spiritually informed free-will, humans cannot make properly informed choices, only petty choices within narrow parameters set by those who in effect are the “controllers”. People voting an unqualified “yes” would be expecting the “ET’s” to create peace, provide free energy and other technology, fix pollution, etc. This would be substituting one form of looking “outside” our selves for solutions with another form of disempowerment. I was also concerned at the time that there would be no way for people to determine the trustworthiness of the political relationships that would be formed with ET’s and humans. Presumably the humans most “in charge” would dominate from the human side of the equation. This of course would mean officialdom of various flavors and stripes.

So the form of contact that I favored at the time would be limited contact between ET’s and those humans who were practically and vibrationally most suited. What I failed to explain at the time was a selection process. Implicitly it would have been under the control of the “ET’s”. There was then (and still is) the problem of those so-called “leaders” of the various new age tendencies who generally operated from self-centeredness.

(The real selection process with the ET’s who are in service to the Light occurs at a higher self level and bypasses most of the human ego-personality problems. It has very little, if anything, to do with one’s “resume” and is not under the unilateral control of the ET’s. or the humans.)

At the time, it was my notion was that there would be a meeting process that would involve those humans who were most committed and aligned to spiritual awakening. As a group, these individuals would represent more of the spiritual leading edge of humanity and could minimize the corrupting influence of those new age celebrities as well as the problem of the intermediation of corrupt officialdom. Contact would take place in normal waking consciousness as well as “dreamtime”. In short, a limited form of first-stage contact, not a widespread public one. That is what I indicated “yes” to in 2003.

Contact: 2010 and Beyond

Today there is a substantial change in the energetic “atmosphere” surrounding humans and earth. The extent of higher level dark force is substantially lessened now, and our connection to our own higher levels of being is growing dramatically. At a simple human level, there is widespread and growing disgust with an officialdom that serves the agendas of the global powers-that-be. We are closer to various cosmic and planetary changes that are beyond ordinary human imagination or control. While there has been much commotion made over ET connections with the powers-that-be and their shadow governments, there has also been over the years various types of quiet ET-human contact involving those of higher vibrational and spiritual awareness..

There is now the question of ET contact, specifically those of benevolent and of the highest intentions, coming up as a possibility. How could this play out?

Consider a scenario of major planetary events requiring need for tangible assistance to large numbers of humans on Earth. Consider also the need to help in the removal of large numbers of humans who need and want to go, for various reasons.

Consider also the possibilities in assisting various communities of people to start out on a new footing, ones in which the personal self is spiritually aligned to higher self, in contrast to self-centered community focused around personal or collective survival.

Now let's consider the problem of public contact.

First there is the matter of minimizing conflict involving fear-based ordinary people as well fear-based officialdom. (The ET's we refer to are not those who have been secretly dealing with the secret officials around the world.) How could such contact be made that would lead to officially-sanctioned public contact? This is a difficult problem. Is contact made with a specially selected group of elected representatives? A nation's president or prime minister and cabinet? Consider the recent situation of those who opposed the EU Lisbon Treaty and who eventually were forced to capitulate.

So, what if there was officially-sanctioned contact, would the populace feel reassured? Consider the USA for a moment. Half the adults support the use of the death penalty and approximately 40% to 45% support the present wars, including their escalation. The USA president does not have the full popular support of a majority and there are many who strongly oppose his being president. Clearly the route of official sanction is difficult. What of the United Nations? It is the UN Security Council that controls the major political decisions of the UN, not the General Assembly. Then there is the matter of the corrupt nature and intent of most of the "leaders" of most countries.

If there was an officially sanctioned ET public contact, would there not be ample reason for suspicion of the ET's themselves, considering the perfidy and malevolence of these officials?

Consider now the problem of the contemplated "false alien invasion" by the powers-that-be, designed to create an even more fearful populace who would be even more willing to subject themselves to all manner of harsh social controls than they do now. Thus ET's who are militarily opposed by the powers-that-be could trigger a scenario that plays right into the hands of the global controllers.

Simply showing up in a strong and visible manner would elicit all manner of problems from a population that is not at all prepared for such an encounter. Even a mission of humanitarian assistance in response to geophysical catastrophes beyond the capacity of any human agencies would be met with a mixed response. During one survey at a higher level of Intelligence, more than half of humans preferred to suffer and struggle it out when presented with devastating earth changes, rather than be "teleported" or otherwise transported to the safety of something profoundly unknown to their limited human awareness.

There are no credible human organizations or recognized figures to lead public opinion. Those who pretend to this are at the best are mostly advocates for disclosure of official secrets, and at worst are self-centered charlatans. The overwhelming emphasis of those who identify with "exopolitics" is that of polarity consciousness of "us versus them". In their case it is to oppose officialdom secrets and demand that the military and secret government to share what they know with the public for the greater good.

As part of this process, there is a growing parade of documents and "whistleblowers" claiming to reveal various "truths" about the official secrets. But the veracity and true agenda of these sources cannot be determined, especially in an arena under the control of the secret government and black-ops agencies. Much of the information revolves around advanced technology and is presented in sensationalistic ways by humans who have no experience with advanced technologies. The result is little more than a circus that serves to distract everyone concerned from spiritual transformation. In addition, the “ufo” and “exopolitics” community is rife with disinformation agents, attention seekers, and people who are simply nuts.

There would need to be a sufficient coalition of diverse social, spiritual, and political leaders who do not have dark secret backgrounds. All those in such a committee would need to be willing to come forth truthfully and acknowledging whatever dark influences there have been in their backgrounds. Otherwise, they are only shells for the powers-that-be.

Concluding Remarks

Given the aforementioned, there is a “higher power” running things and more of our own higher selves are now involved among small, yet significant, portion of humans. So if there are those humans who are to be helped, for widely varied reasons, then that is what will happen, quietly or more overtly.

For purposes of discussing “post-2009 contact”, I have emphasized involvement from those ET’s/aliens that are genuinely of higher service to our spiritual evolution. As to the problems of potentially conflicting agendas, this is not something that humans have influence over, for reasons already discussed. To discuss alien versus alien wars or human versus alien wars is pointless speculation and can only lead to some humans identifying with the dark powers that be to defend “their” earth and of course maintain their ongoing enslavement.

To be fair to the honest people in the “exopolitics” communities, there is a need to address this matter in a serious manner that develops some “reasonableness” among certain opinion leaders. Unfortunately, most of their energy is misplaced focusing on “disclosure” and in trying to make a case that “ET’s” “aliens” are real and that they are here. These advocates are trying to convince people who already know the score and have a policy line to follow. In terms of their readership, trying to make the case for the existence of ET’s in Earth’s space is only “preaching to the choir”.

Over recent years, statistical survey research has found in the USA that 72 % believe the government is not telling the truth about UFO’s, 56 % believe that intelligent life exists on other worlds, 34 % believe in UFO’s, and 6 % of reported they personally knew others who had encountered extraterrestrials. (These numbers are typically within +/-3 % to +/-4 % margin of error.)

Humans who continue on Earth will need new ways of conducting themselves in awakened community and will need to consider the guidance and counsel of others who are familiar with such extraordinary changes to a planetary system. Individuals conducting themselves within a spiritually informed context and in connection to higher self and Creator will be open to many new avenues to existence. Within such a context, it will be then possible to develop new ways of providing for material needs as well.

As part of the larger ascension process, there will be some humans who will emerge in a partly ascended state. They will be in a position to provide guidance to others. However, most humans have limited awareness and require something dramatic to open their “doors of perception”, otherwise they cannot discern truth from falsehood.

“Contact” with ET’s or “other aspects” of our greater selves who are truly in higher service can play a positive role toward helping humans grow into a larger spiritual awareness. Public “contact” cannot be postponed simply due to the problems of a limited human awareness and corruption of human society. The return of light and the ascension process is what matters most.

Lastly, I would not rule out the possibility of humans offered protective shelter aboard the vessels of some “ET’s” prior to major planetary changes. Perhaps even returning to the surface when the planet settles into a new dynamic.

Food for thought.
