Commentary and Guidance for Enlightened Change During Rapidly Changing Times

“A-List” Updates

“In this era, more humans than ever before have opted to explore higher spiritual dimensions of existence... Their ‘desire’ was more often than not, manipulated by false teachers and false teachings. ... Regardless, and through all that has been, what remains is the ‘essential truth’ of this inner desire. This has little to do with the events that humanity as a whole may twist and turn upon. Rather, it is this desire that must be met now by the action of the souls and that of Creator with all the energy possible.”

Dear ‘A-List’ Members,

I want to thank everyone who chose to be in the “A-List” group and to thank you all for your being here now. These have not been easy times for any of us.

Last year, I anticipated concluding this work by December of 2009. But then it became obvious that additional elements of the work were required for its completion. Therefore an impromptu series of “Updates” were prepared for those from the larger group of readers who specifically selected themselves to be on the “A-List”. So here you are, a self-selecting group of people who are serious about understanding the deeper influences and futures of humanity and reality. Good for you!

As I wrote in the December 2009 concluding issue, I am grateful to have been able to share this work in this way and for the email and other communications with so many who have become something of an ‘extended family’.

We have taken much care and thought in presenting what has been published in Global Awakening News during its four years. Our future views presented in the State of the Vision sections were deliberately understated, although accurate in substance. However, the larger events that we anticipated for 2009 for the human and planetary environments shifted by one full year, and so we are now at that juncture. Those who took our advisories seriously are well prepared and have had the benefit of an extra year of ‘breathing room’.

In Global Awakening News and the ‘A-List’ Updates, a considerable range of topics were addressed. Rather than spoon-feed detailed answers and prognostications, we proffered an extensive frame of reference for readers to work with for themselves. Woven into the material was a composite of insights, remote viewing, questions, and answers from wide range of people that was in concordance with our own ‘knowing’.

We tried to explain things as well as possible, though some complained of ‘too many words’. The information and analysis is based upon various modes of direct knowing of what is going on in the human realm and higher levels. Words were used to convey both substantively and vibrationally.

Including our close colleagues, we endeavored to explain what few have ever presented before. Some of what we have published is truly unique and ranged from original social science research and analysis to esoteric matters of the greatest importance to all of us. Upon benefit of hindsight, I am also very pleased with our work from the mid-1990s to the mid-2000’s.

There is little more I can offer or express in words that I have not already done. All the most important material is written out, disseminated to many, and posted to the Internet. There is no more that I can explain any differently as to the basic principles for ‘knowing’ or what is going on in the ‘control matrix’ and the great changes underway. There is little more that we can say to help people move past the distractions and falsehoods of this reality and into finding truth for themselves.

Most of all we have sought ways to help everyone reading to think for themselves and develop their own higher faculties. Not just their human intellect, but their ‘spiritual mind’.

So now I leave it to those of you who ‘get the picture’ to serve as interim transitional humans for others to help them find their way. Remember, you cannot do this for someone else, you can only show them the truth if they ask for such help. Otherwise one is expending energy that is better used for ones own situation.

What comes next is on another level that at present has only a thin connection with the human milieu. Those who know this will be there for what comes next.

My best wishes to everyone, at all levels of their being!

-Alex
